FEATURING A READING BY WISCONSIN POET LAUREATE DASHA KELLY HAMILTON

100 Thousand Poets for Change, a worldwide poetry movement, presents its 11th annual open mic in Sheboygan, one of 200 cities around the world that will share visions of positive change. The theme this year, "Together Again," will be shared through poems and songs. Members of the public can share an original poem or a poem by someone else.

All are welcome to participate. Please bring a comfortable chair.
